Rose planted in memory of Helen and Nigel Charlton

Jason and Daniel Charlton with their families

On 2nd April, family and friends of Helen and Nigel Charlton came together at the Village Hall for the planting of a Royal Jubilee rose in their memory.

It was a lovely sunny day, but somewhat windy outside. Afterwards everyone enjoyed light refreshments inside the hall.

The family said they were very grateful for the village organising such a lovely event.

National Trust

Well, it's both a surprise and an honour to be writing to you. I don't think any of us were expecting Paul to be moving on, probably including Paul himself – but restoring Clandon is such an important job, and we know he'll do it brilliantly.

I'm thrilled to have been asked to lead the Mottisfont and South West Hampshire teams going forwards. This is a place that I love – I've been part of the senior team here for the last 6 years, as Visitor Experience Manager. My background before that was in museum and gallery learning (I worked at the National Gallery for a number of years), and as a university lecturer. I was also lucky enough to take part in the Clore Leadership Programme, which enabled me to do all sorts of business study, research and secondments in different organisations. The National Trust has asked me to be General Manager for 6 months initially; if it's working well, I very much hope I'll be the right candidate long term.

I'm sorry that one of the first things I need to do is to apologise for the difficulties with traffic congestion on Good Friday. The weather (and the dire forecast) meant that we had unprecedented numbers of visitors. Both car parks became full; we closed the gates and asked people to leave rather than queuing and blocking access to the village, but some of them were reluctant to move on. I will be talking to our local police team to get their advice on how to avoid this and what is best practice in such circumstances. By June, we should have the water meadow available for parking, so this should not be an issue, but I do apologise for Good Friday.

Thank you for your patience. Looking forward to meeting more Acorn readers soon,

With best wishes,

Louise Govier, General Manager

15 members enjoyed a talk on the History of English Canals and the decorative art of Canal Painting.

There was also an opportunity for members to try their hand at doing some of the traditional painting in the style of the roses used on various items, also decorated items to see and purchase.

On 23rd March members attended a dinner at The Blue Hayes restaurant to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Woman's Institute. It was a very enjoyable evening with a delicious meal and thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday 10th May in Mottisfont Village Hall at 7.30pm, when there will be a talk on the 'History of Knitting 1800 - 1965'. This will be followed by the AGM.

Trials, tribulations, and tributes: The work of a junior doctor in cancer research

Speaker: Dr. Siân Pugh

Siân Pugh is a junior doctor and Medical Research Council clinical research fellow working at the University of Southampton. Her interest in research was sparked during her undergraduate years and since then she has been committed to becoming a clinician scientist. During her training as a junior doctor Siân has been fortunate to obtain both academic and clinical fellowship positions which have allowed her to pursue her research interests alongside her clinical training. Currently she is undertaking a PhD, supported by a clinical research training fellowship from the MRC.

During an evening of talk and conversation, Siân will tell her personal story as a junior doctor undertaking cancer research. This will include the highs and lows of undertaking clinical trials, why research should be part of every doctor's job, and her personal views on the move towards precision cancer medicine. At a time of much media interest in junior doctors and turbulence in the NHS, Siân will give her thoughts on returning to the NHS to complete her clinical training.

All are welcome. £3 for admission, including a glass of wine or juice.

The "University of Broughton" will be having a long summer holiday, and the next talk in the series will be in September.

REVISING THE PARISH PLAN

TVBC has started an initiative to involve local communities in the process of creating or updating their own local planning statements. Since our Parish Plan was written in 2009 it is now in need of review and update. Parish Plans are intended to outline issues that are important to local residents and that will influence future neighbourhood planning. Typically the plans cover road and transport subjects, community facilities and events, housing and planning matters, environmental, local landscape and open space issues. Such plans are important as they may be used to ensure local concerns and characteristics are taken into account before local planning authority decisions are made.

The Government and local authority recommended course of action for Parish Plans is that they should be created by members of the community and be subject to widespread and effective community involvement.

Local parish councils such as Lockerley, East Dean, East and West Tytherley are also considering their Parish Plans and, as there is some common areas of interest between our parishes, there may be some value in considering each other's proposals.

It is important that our revised Parish Plan represents, as far as possible, the views of the entire parish so a first meeting to get the ball rolling will be held at the Mill Arms on Tuesday 17th May at 7.30pm. Please make a note in your diary and come along.

For more information contact: Julia Barnett (340793) or Jeff Channing (340555). A copy of the 2009 Parish Plan is available by email from:
survey@performance-hr.co.uk.

Dear Friends

Farewell!

Having completed my training contract, Andy and I will be leaving the Benefice at the end of June to take the next step on our journey. I have been blessed to live in the beautiful village of Mottisfont and I have enjoyed getting to know people. It scarcely seems like four years have gone by and yet I have learned so much.

It has been a privilege to walk with parishioners on their journeys, coming alongside families at times of transition including baptisms, weddings and funerals. I hope I have shared God's love with all of those that I have met along the way.

Ron has been a steady mentor and patient guide and I owe a huge debt of gratitude to him. Gina and many others across the Benefice have encouraged me, and I am grateful to everyone for their support.

It has been a joy to help to introduce new initiatives, such as Mottisfont's Messy Church Club, and I hope that these will continue to flourish.

This coming month, the Church celebrates both Ascension (5th May) and the birth of the church at Pentecost (15th May).

When Jesus bade farewell to his followers to ascend and return to heaven, He promised that he would not leave them alone. At Pentecost we celebrate that promise becoming a reality. God sent the Holy Spirit and the Church was born. The Holy Spirit equipped the first disciples and equips Christ's followers today with the gifts we need to help us to live our lives as followers of Christ, to guide us as we journey through life and to help us to bear witness to God's transforming love.

God's Holy Spirit makes all things possible, and I believe God's Holy Spirit journeys with me and enables me to do things that I would never have thought likely!

And so, as we prepare to embark on the next stage of our journey, I wish you every blessing on your own journeys.

Gill

Romsey Deanery Praying Together, 5th - 15th May

As part of our Deanery Mission Action Plan we have planned to share in worship and prayer between Ascension Day, Thursday 5th May, and Pentecost, Sunday 15th May, building on the Prayer Week we had in March 2015. We are also taking part in the Archbishops' Call for a 'Great Wave of Prayer' for Evangelism leading up to Pentecost. We will be focussing on praying for the mission and evangelism initiatives in our parish action plans.

Our aims:

- to focus on prayer, developing what we already do and exploring new ideas;
- to pray in particular for the mission and evangelism initiatives planned by the parishes in our deanery.

We begin on Thursday 5th May, Ascension Day, with a Deanery Eucharist in the Abbey at 7.30pm, to which everyone is invited. Please come, and bring a full car!

There will be events in many places across the deanery. All are open to all-comers! We want to grow in confidence in crossing parish/benefice boundaries in our deanery. It's great to have such a wealth of opportunities where we can pray together, in different ways. Please try to join in with something, somewhere, during the week.

We end on Pentecost, Sunday, 15th May, with celebrations in our own parish churches across the Deanery, and a lively evening celebration in Winchester Cathedral.

Every day from Friday 6th to Saturday 14th May, including Sunday 8th, the following four events will take place in ROMSEY:

9.00 – 10.00am	Upstairs in Cafe Nero	Prayer Talk. Have a coffee, talk about prayer with people who pray, see prayer resources.
10.30 – 11.30am	The Hundred	Prayer in the Community: 'Say one for Me'. Two Prayer Stations.
12 noon	The Abbey	Offering the prayers resulting from 'Say one for Me'.
5.30 – 6.00pm	The Abbey	Prayers for our deanery.

Open garden, cream tea and live music at The Orchards, Sunday, 8th May, 1-5pm

A year ago in May, I had a benign brain tumour removed and have had an amazing recovery. Many other local people have been affected by brain tumours too, so all money raised will be donated to the Braintrust (registered charity: 1114634). It is a charity that really helped me on my journey.

We will be serving cream teas, be entertained by local musicians, have a raffle, a bouncy castle and other activities to keep children amused. Entrance will cost £1.50 for adults and £1 for children.

We are at 'The Orchards', at the Newtown end of Carters Clay Road (SO51 0GL). Parking will be available in the field, just past The Square, opposite the phone box and post box. We look forward to welcoming you!

Chicken breast with a wild mushroom, pancetta and tarragon cream

Some flavours are just natural matches: chicken and tarragon, cream and mushrooms, and the four combined are delicious!

This recipe serves 4 people.

Ingredients

100g diced pancetta
1 tablespoon olive oil
2 cloves garlic, crushed
30g wild mushrooms
2 teaspoons butter
4 chicken breasts
250ml chicken stock
300ml double cream
1 tablespoon fresh chopped tarragon

Supervisor
at Kimbridge
Restaurant

How to make it

Clean and chop the mushrooms and leave to one side. Put the olive oil, garlic, pancetta and thyme into a pan with a teaspoon of butter. Season the chicken breasts, add them to the pan and cook both sides of the breasts until they start to colour nicely.

Add the chicken stock and simmer for 15 minutes until the chicken is cooked. Remove the chicken breasts and leave to rest on a warm plate.

Reserve any liquid from the pan and sauté the mushrooms in a teaspoon of butter. Add the cream, simmer until it reduces by half, and then add the chicken and any remaining stock.

Serve garnished with the tarragon.
